'Maple Heights Musical Highlights' CD

Musical Alumni Return to Their Roots

Roscoe Records is both extremely honored and proud to announce the release of its latest CD - 'Maple Heights Musical Highlights', which is available through the Maple Heights Alumni Association website beginning December 10th.

The CD is a music compilation of Maple Heights Alumni, which includes world class musicians - Chuck Findley - former lead trumpet player of The NBC Orchestra/The Tonight Show Band with Johnny Carson/Jay Leno and most recorded trumpet player in history, Eleanor Pudil Anop - classical performer with Cleveland Symphony, educator, and juror with the Metropolitan Opera, Dave Allen - jazz influenced sax player and former member of Blood Sweat & Tears. All told, there are 20 music tracks which highlight various genres' - all performed by Maple Heights alumni.

Current Roscoe artist Ladd Biro reflected, "To be asked to be included with all of these artists is truly an honor, and I am humbled by their performances. The strength of this entire concept is that proceeds will benefit Maple Heights students in the form of scholarship money - provided by the Maple Heights Alumni Association".

This concept was the idea of former Maple Heights band director Albert Melfi, who had many of these artists as students during his teaching career (1958-1986). "After listening to some music presented to me by a former student, I thought with the wealth of talented Maple Alumni that I knew of over the years, wouldn't it be great to get them all on a CD". As this initial concept began to develop, the idea to link it to a fund raising vehicle in support of educational scholarships seemed natural.

Besides the aforementioned artists, the album has a full complement of a of artists - versatile writer/entertainer Bruce Michaels, lovely singer-song writer Logan Wells, the ever popular reggae artist Carlos Jones, brother & sister duet of Gordon Moebius & symphony soloist Muriel Moebius-Mikelsons, and special past performances of the celebrated Maple Heights Senior High & East Junior High Bands.
